

We're Fine Free!

As of July 1st, ARLS will no longer charge overdue fines! We are dedicated to enhancing accessibility for our patrons and increasing the volume of returned items. We will continue to charge for lost or damaged items, but if you have long overdue items bring them back to clear your account! Click here to read the full statement.

Summer Reading

Ends August 12th!

It's not too late to participate in Summer Reading. All books read June 1st through August 12th count!

Kids Requirements:

Ages 0-5: Read 20 Books
Ages 6-12: Read 6 Books
Ages 13-18: Read 4 Books

Adult Requirements:

Regular: Read 4 Books
Parenting: Read 10 Books

Beanstack

Learn More

Grand Prize Winner's will be contacted after August 12th.

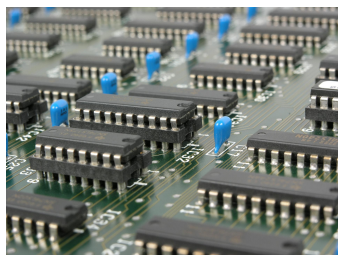

Buck a Bag Sale

Saturday, August 19, 11 am to 2 pm

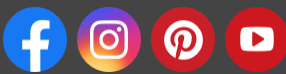

Hopewell Community Center located at 100 W. City Point Rd.

The Buck-A-Bag Book Sale is a golden opportunity for bookworms, literary enthusiasts, and bargain hunters to dive into a treasure trove of books at an unbeatable price. With thousands of books available, attendees can fill a bag to the brim for just $1 per bag. Please note that bags will be provided on-site while supplies last. All proceeds from the Buck-A-Bag Book Sale will directly benefit the Appomattox Regional Library System.

STREAM

Tuesday, August 8, 5:30 pm at Hopewell
Wednesday, August 9, 5:30 pm at Rohoic
Thursday, August 10, 5:30 pm at Prince George
This month's theme is Electricity, a fan favorite!
Snap circuits are back and ready to be connected.

Appomattox Regional Library
209 E Cawson St, Hopewell, VA 23860
admin@arls.org
804-458-6329
arls.org