VIRGINIA PUBLIC LIBRARY
DIRECTORS ASSOCIATION

Virginia Public Library Silver Standards of Excellence

Presented to

Appomattox Regional Library System

This award is presented on March 22, 2024, to the public library that fulfills the metrics necessary to receive the VPLDA's Standards of Excellence Silver level achievement.

Amanda B. Jackson, President
Virginia Public Library Directors Association

SECTION THIRTEEN: RULES OF CONDUCT FOR LIBRARY USERS

13.1 Appropriate Library Conduct

REV 3/5/01

It is the responsibility of the library staff to maintain library environments in a pleasant manner for as many people as possible. In doing so, the library staff should not ignore a patron whose behavior disturbs others. Likewise, it is equally important that the library staff be tolerant of a patron who behaves unusually, but who does not disturb others.

The library system shall have the authority to ask anyone to leave the library that is not behaving in an acceptable manner on the premises. Unacceptable behavior is behavior which interferes with others' use of the library. Anyone who has been removed may appeal this action to the Library Board of Trustees.

13.2 Staff Safety Policy

REV 5/21/19

It is the policy of the Appomattox Regional Library System to seek to maintain a safe workplace, free from any threat of physical violence, emotional abuse, or any form of potentially violent intimidation. Therefore the following policies will be followed:

- Acts of violence, verbal intimidation, obscenity, vandalism, sabotage, damage to library property, or the threat of such acts are prohibited.

All complaints, reports, or advisements will be thoroughly investigated and reported to the proper law enforcement authorities as is warranted by the circumstances. Library staff members are advised to report any such acts, or threats of such acts as stated above, to the supervising librarian immediately. Failure to comply with this policy is a direct violation of library rules and may result in the activation of disciplinary procedures up to and including termination of employment. Any such acts or threats of such acts as described above which are committed by library patrons or visitors, will not only be reported to law enforcement officials,

13.3 Unattended Children

REV 3/5/01

Children are welcome in all of our libraries and we are concerned about their safety and welfare. However, parents and caregivers are responsible for monitoring the activities and regulating the behavior of their children while the children are in the library.

If an unattended child is being disruptive, is habitually left unattended for long periods of time, or is deemed to be at risk of coming to harm (as in the case of a child being left unattended when the library is ready to close) the Library will take action. An effort will be made to locate the responsible parent, guardian or caregiver. If necessary, appropriate law enforcement or child protective authorities will be notified to take custody of the child.

We respect the privacy of all library patrons and will intervene only when, in the opinion of the library staff, the safety and well-being of a child is threatened.

13.4 Smoking

Rev. 5/21/19

Section 13: Rules of Conduct for Using the Library Adopted _____

13.1 Appropriate Library Conduct

The Appomattox Regional Library System (ARLS) and its staff makes every effort to provide its patrons with a welcoming environment that fosters lifelong learning. Its mission is to provide opportunities for access to information, entertainment and technology. In doing so, ARLS patrons gather individually and as groups within ARLS's locations.

ARLS is not a "quiet library". It is not a study hall where staff will quiet every laugh, sound or patron interaction. It is expected that patrons will have conversations, children will take advantage of the children's spaces, program participants will enjoy the experience and entertainment. At the same time, every patron using an ARLS location should expect to be able to use the library space without unreasonable disruptions and without having to experience disturbing behavior of other patrons. ARLS staff will address any problems they observe or which are brought to their attention. Patrons being unreasonably disruptive will be warned once. If the behavior continues, the patron will be directed to leave the library for the day. Depending on the circumstances, a patron being unreasonably disruptive may be barred from ARLS property for up to six months.

Patrons demonstrating highly disturbing behavior will be directed to leave the property immediately. A patron demonstrating highly disturbing behavior will be barred from ARLS property for one year and may then only return to an ARLS location after meeting with the assistant director or the director in the assistant director's absence. The assistant director or director will determine after the meeting if the patron will be allowed to return to ARLS property or if the patron's barring should be continued for additional time.

All patrons barred from ARLS property will receive written notice of the decision by regular mail if possible. Otherwise, the patron will be notified by hand delivery of the letter the next time the patron visits an ARLS location..

13. 2 Unreasonably Disruptive Behavior

The following are grounds for barring a patron from ARLS property after the patron has been warned to stop disrupting the use of the library for other patrons:

1. Disorderly conduct which means any behavior that interferes with regular use of ARLS services by a patron or ARLS staff. Disorderly conduct includes, but is not limited to, loud conversations or ongoing noises of excessive volume that interferes with other patrons or the staff using the library.
2. Use of abusive, obscene, or sexual language.
3. Consuming food in the library other than designated areas. Beverages with lids are permitted inside the library. Otherwise, beverages may only be consumed in designated cafe' areas.
4. Entering without shoes or shirt or removing the same while in the library.
5. Selling or soliciting money within the library. ARLS may make an exception for presenters at library or Friends of the Library sponsored events. Exceptions will be made at the sole discretion of the library director.
6. Misuse of the restrooms including, but not limited to, bathing, shaving, changing or washing of clothes.
7. Sitting on or putting feet or legs on the tables inside the library. Patrons may not recline or lie horizontally in the library.
8. Smoking, vaping or use of any other tobacco products inside the library. Patrons choosing to smoke may not do so immediately outside the library's entrances as this blocks the entrances and subjects library users to breathing second hand smoke.
9. Continued use of audio, cell phones, or speakers when the volume is sufficiently loud to be heard by other patrons. Patrons are expected to use headphones. ARLS will make every effort to reasonably accommodate patrons with impaired hearing.
10. Bringing any animal inside of the library other than designated service animals. The library may make an exception for presenters bringing animals to the library as part of a scheduled program. Emotional support animals are not considered a designated service animal.
11. Violating the ARLS's Internet Use Policy whether using library workstations or the library's WiFi.
12. Bringing in more than two bags. No bag may exceed 16"x16"x20". The library director may make exceptions for library staff, programs and meetings.
13. Placing or leaving personal property inside the library in a manner that blocks or impedes access by other patrons or library staff to shelves, resources or rooms.
14. Interfering, hindering or deliberately impeding patrons or staff from entering the library or moving about the library.

13.3 Highly Disturbing Behavior

The following represent highly disturbing behavior and are grounds for immediately ordering the person to leave the library. The person will not receive a warning to cease such conduct. Law enforcement will be called if necessary to remove the person from ARLS property.

1. Harassing (by physically, verbally or sexually abusive behavior) or threatening another patron or library staff.
2. Engaging in any illegal activity or behavior on library property.
3. Selling, distributing, or consuming any alcoholic beverage.
4. Being under the influence of any intoxicating beverage or controlled substance.
5. Mutilating, defacing, destroying or stealing any library property, the property of any other patron or the property of library staff. If library staff have reasonable grounds to believe library property has not been properly checked out, staff can request the patron to stay in the library so staff can assess what triggered the alarm. Refusal to allow library staff to inspect a patron's belongings along with the continued activation of the alarm system will be considered in barring the patron from the library.
6. Engaging in sexual acts or making a display of public nudity. In compliance with Section 32.1-370 of the Code of Virginia, accommodations will be made for breastfeeding in a public area.
7. Refusing to leave the library as directed to do so by library staff as a result of violating any of the library's Rules of Conduct.

13.4 Unattended Personal Property

ARLS is not responsible for unattended possessions, and urges library users to discourage crime by keeping their property with them. Staff may move items that are blocking or impeding access to shelves, resources or rooms. It is the patron's responsibility to keep track of their belongings. Staff will dispose of any found food, beverages or any prohibited items under these rules.

Items left on ARLS property due to a patron suffering a medical emergency will be stored until close of business on the third day following the incident. Staff are not responsible for identifying the owner of any stored property. It is the patron's responsibility to claim their property or to notify the library another person will be recovering the property. Other than moving the item into storage, the library takes no responsibility for the care or maintenance of found items. Items that are determined to be hazardous to the library or its property will not be stored.

Unattended items left after closing for any reason other than a medical emergency may be disposed of by library staff the same day. Unattended items from medical emergencies may be disposed of by library staff after three business days.
